Dedication

"Cartwheel King"

We students of BHS would like to dedicate this edition of BEAR TALES to our coach and physical education teacher, Mr. Bernie Freeouf. Mr. Freeouf joined the staff of BHS in the 1978 school term.

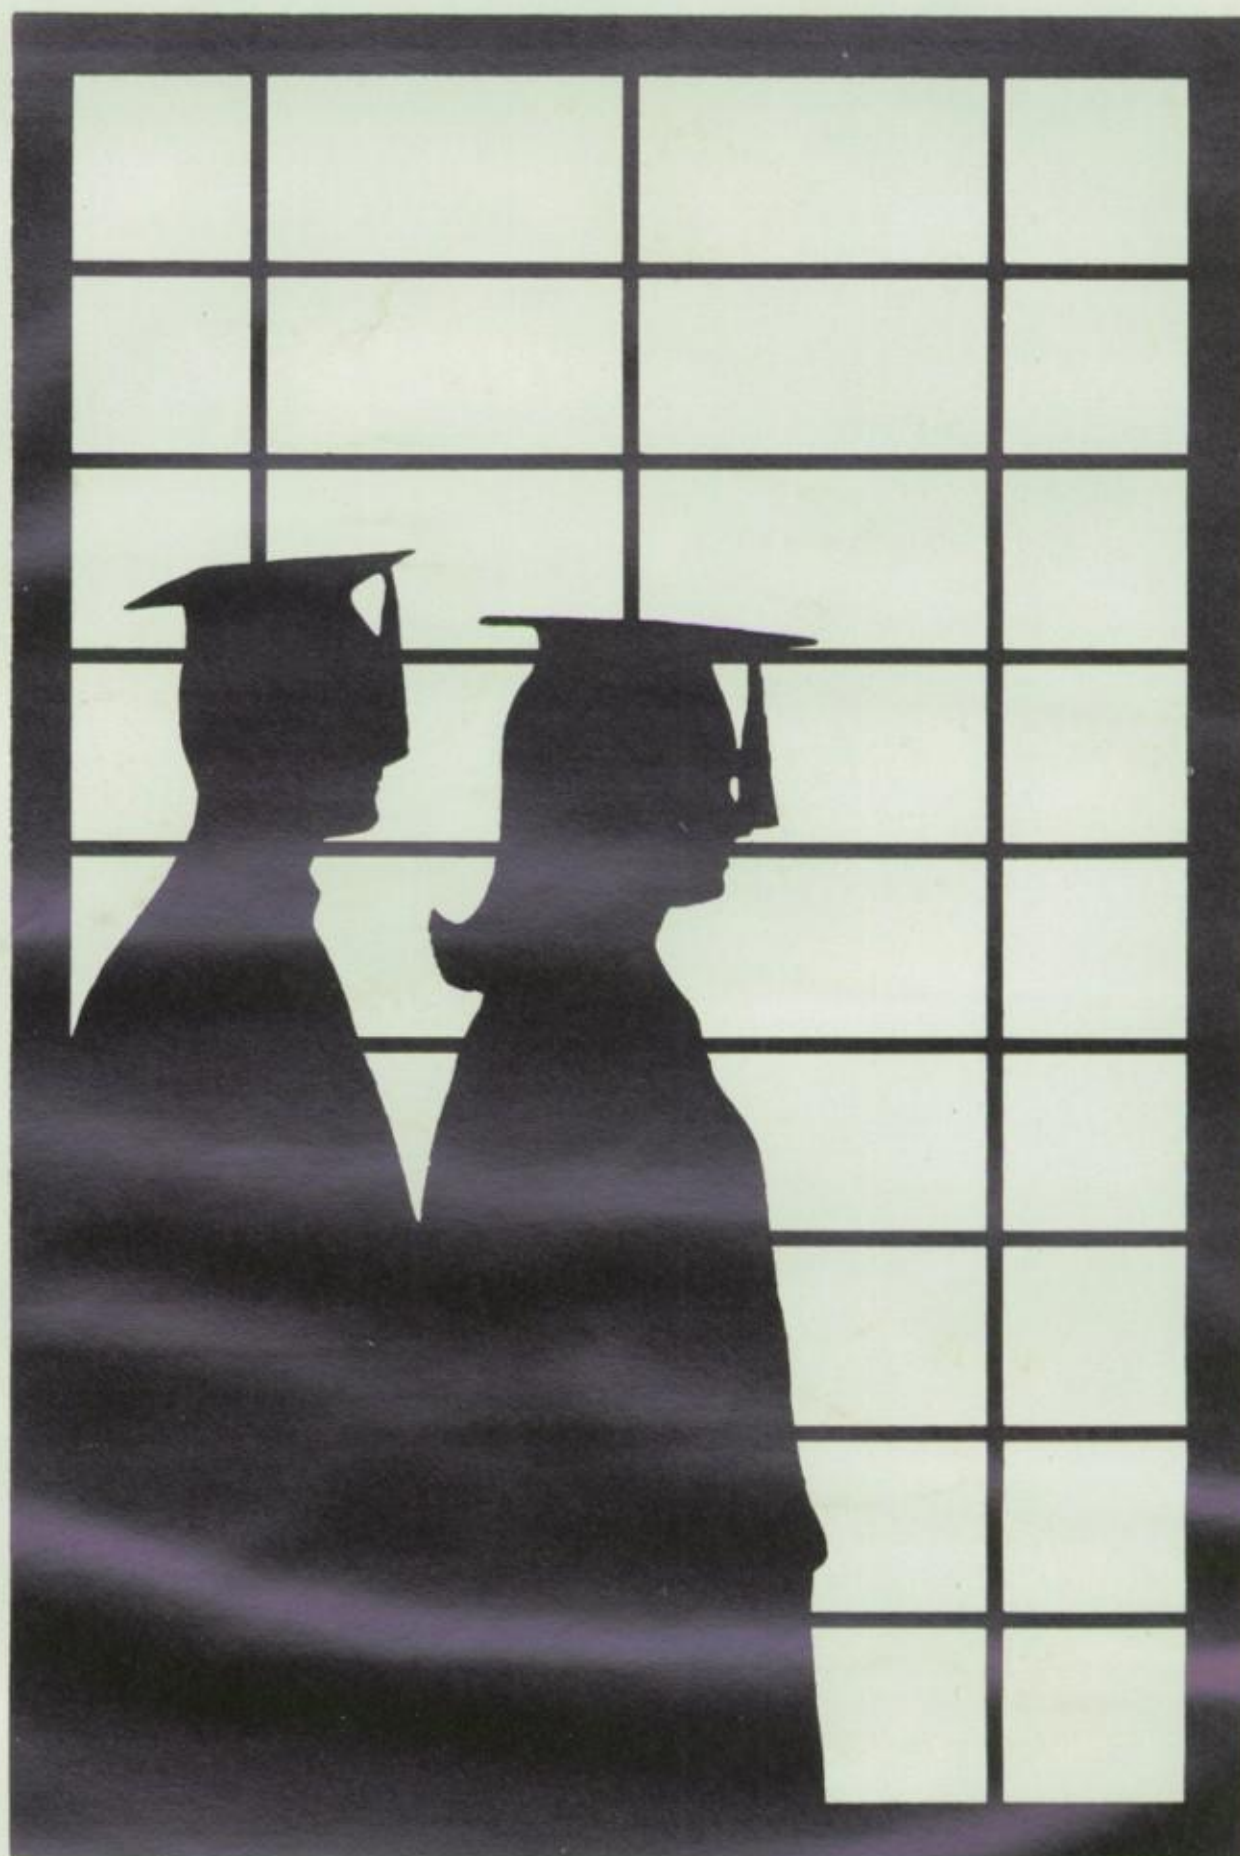

After losing a majority of the volleyball team, Mr. Freeouf rebuilt the team. Over the past 3 years, he has accomplished a 32-11 record. In the 1979-80 season, his team finished with a 5th ranking in state.

Mr. Freeouf also coached the boys basketball team, to a 10-6 record this season. He also coached the boys track team and is the instructor for all P.E. classes.

Best of Luck in the future, Mr. Freeouf.

gone forever here

The class of 1980 has done many things together, but one of our most exciting was our Sneak Trip. We left April 26 at 2:00 p.m. for an exciting three days at Kansas City. We enjoyed the sites of a KC Royals baseball game and the exciting rides at World's of Fun. We spent the three days at the Sheraton-Royal Hotel where we enjoyed the recreation area. On April 28 after several hours of driving we arrived back at BHS. It was a tiring but enjoying trip that we will always reflect back on how much fun our class had.

The Jr.-Sr. Prom was held April 12, 1980, the theme being "Take The Long Way Home." A banquet was held at the Belvidere Country Inn. Christine Hinrichs welcomed the guests. A delicious meal was served and after the meal Karen Rippe, secretary of the senior class, read the wills. Karen Mammen and Kris Spickelmier read the prophecy. Entertainment was provided by four sophomores who were also the servers for the evening. They were: Kelly Walker, Brian Jensen, Renee Reinsch and Judy Miller. They were attired in western style clothes. The banquet concluded as Linda Miller, senior class president, thanked the junior class for the Prom.

Everyone returned to Bruning for the dance. The gym was decorated with yellow and brown streamers and different articles associated with the farm. The music was provided by Redd Tag Disco. Everyone had an enjoyable evening.

A Look Into The Future Prophecy

While looking into a crystal ball, the class of 1981 saw what the class of 1980 would be doing in 10 years, and this is what they saw. The first person who popped into the crystal ball was Linda Stych, who is now a secretary at the Bruning Lumberyard. Her hobbies are washing smoked-out chimneys and improving zip-lock baggies to make them last longer.

As the crystal ball changed pictures the next face that appeared was Linda Miller. Linda is now employed as a Driver's Education teacher, teaching her students the skills of backing into Mach's and getting out of muddy driveways.

Now into vision comes Mark Schoenholz, cruising around town after a hot, grueling session of playing fullback for the San Diego Chargers and listening to his favorite song by Meat loaf, "Two out of Three Ain't Bad." Mark's off season job is running a brewery.

Following Mark, as usual, is the Lucky Pastor Thomas Damrow. His hobby is raising parakeets, teaching them to say "Pretty Boy, Pretty Boy." Among many things that he is well known for is his new courting system. He is presently working out all the bugs in his "heads-tails dating system." Out of the many towns surrounding this area he has chosen heads for Hebron and tails for Ruskin.

Jackie was next into the future. She is now writing the script for Fantasy Island where she is living with her husband. Jackie often takes trips to Florida to rekindle her fond memories of the wonderful people she met on earlier trips.

We then saw Julie Remmers working at Red Lobster. She and her husband, Dan, have a bouncing baby boy named Fritz. Fritz can only speak the words "and stuff," "you know" and "stuff." The magic ball leaves a P.S. saying, "Hope you make it home tonight with your suitcase."

Half way through the class of 1980 we see Big Simbody playing poker without any money for chips. He is still running out of answers for his accounting business.

The next person that came into view was Jim Spickelmier, the lonely Maytag repairman. He still makes excursions to California and indulges in chlorinated water. His business is going down hill because he spends too much time in the dark room listening to the radio.

As we looked farther into the future the fortune teller brought into sight the "Great White Hunter," D. D. Messman. He now resides in Shickley and runs the Shickley Longhorn Company.

As we looked farther into the high class future we saw Rona Lichty, a receptionist for the T. Butler & K. Spickelmier Optometry Business. Although she has tried her luck at many other things, she finds she enjoys listening to the top 30 hits and reproducing the sounds herself, launching her career into full swing. Songs she enjoys the most are "Blow Away," "Heaven on the 7th Floor" and "Three Times a Lady."

Still shining through the crystal ball appears Leslie Herman, alias Lester, who has been pearled for her 10th time. Her hobby, while driving around, is stopping to train the "Wild Turkeys." She has become famous for her recipe for "extra hot tacos" which are made with a little too much hot sauce. Her latest fad is wearing a plastic bag on her head while trying to identify fake sleepers.

Then into vision was Lisa Salfrank, who makes a habit of going to Hawk's and sunbathing on the "lily pads." Lisa's newest income is from writing the new disco hit of "Tiny Bubbles." Lisa is a secretary for the Chapman Insurance Agency.

And last but not least into the crystal ball is Karen Rippe. Karen is employed at the D&D Auction Company. Karen's pastime is trying to cross over lines without falling and without spilling tea. Karen still has a hard time paying attention at Christmas Eve Services.

The images in the crystal ball are becoming foggier and foggier, until we see the mist of the lives of these 13 star-struck seniors of the reigning class of 1980 pass before our eyes. Apparently they have all been successful in what they set out to do when they left their carefree lives at B.H.S.

Graduation 1980

"Our glory consists not in never failing but in rising every time we fall."

The class of 1980 was graduated from Bruning High School on Friday, May 16, 1980. This graduation was made especially memorable by several events during the ceremonies.

The baccalaureate address, which was based on II Corinthians 12:9, 10, was given by Pastor Thomas Damrow. Pastor personalized his address by referring to several of the seniors by name and mentioning their accomplishments.

Linda Stych presented the salutatory address, and Julie Remmers the valedictory address, both of which were excellently done.

Two vocal selections were presented: "Never Let Go of Your Dream" by the Mixed Octet, and "Corner of the Sky" by the Senior Class.

Mr. Chipman, principal, presented the awards and scholarships.

The presentation of an honorary diploma to Mr. Vernon Johnson, our head bus driver, was a special surprise.

Mr. Stewart, superintendent, presented the class of 1980 to Mr. Ronald Lichty, president of the school board, who then presented the members of the class with their diplomas.

The Bruning High School Brass Choir played Pomp and Circumstance after the Benediction by Pastor Damrow and the graduation exercises were over.

The graduates were greeted and congratulated by many of their friends relatives, classmates, and teachers immediately following the exercises.

Almost There

The class of 1980 was kept busy in the 79-80 school year with moneymaking projects and organizing the Jr.-Sr. Prom. A bake sale was held on December 22nd; along with a soup supper on January 22nd. Magazines were sold in the Fall, and the class also sponsored several bake raffles during the football season. All the proceeds made from the sales went to financing the Jr.-Sr. Prom and the class' yearbook page.

These events made the school year both interesting and exciting for the Juniors.

Meeting the Challenges of B.H.S.

The Freshman year was filled with parties and selling products. A skating party was sponsored by the class in September. Swimming and eating pizza were the events for a party in January. The class sold Current products as their moneymaking project.

Selling rat poison was a moneymaking project for the Sophomores this year. The class also went to a classmate's home to decorate their Homecoming float. A meal was enjoyed after decorating the float.

Although their talents are just starting to blossom, it is for certain that they will all be successful in high school. They have participated in different activities, also. One of the highlights for them this year was the reading olympics, in which they all eagerly participated, and they did fine outstanding jobs. They also took a field trip and had several parties.

Stars of The Future

The graduating classes of the next decade have been busy preparing themselves for their upcoming 12 years of education.

The kindergarten have done several different things throughout the year, such as taking a short trip to take in the sights of a fire engine, having the well-looked forward to Halloween party which was a smashing success. Other scheduled events for this ambitious class included a Christmas program, a Gingerbread Hunt in January, the annual Valentine's Day party, a spring program, and a well-earned field trip. With all these activities, this little class has been kept busy as little beavers throughout the year.

The upcoming scholars of the years '90, and '91 are counting the years they have until they reach the long-awaited days of their high school life. They have kept very busy with activities in preparation for this time. They also had their annual Christmas, Valentine's Day and Easter Party, and participated in the Christmas program. If they continue to keep up the good work that they are doing now, they will turn out to be some of the most promising scholars B.H.S. has ever had.

Quality Not Counting Quantity

Although the players were few, Bruning fielded a good football team. Coach Bridges, and Assn't Coach Hogeland thought the team played with a lot of heart. The Bears broke long-standing record of most points scored in a game. This occurred at Ruskin. Although there were 11 out, Bruning finished the season 4-5 losing only to teams that had been ranked in the top 10 in the state.

To celebrate homecoming the annual "spirit week" began on Monday, October 15. The schedule for the week's activities was: Monday, "Lick 'em Day"; Tuesday, "We Back Our Team"; Wednesday, "Be Original Day"; Thursday, "Top the Roosters", and Friday, "Sweetheart Day."

An award was given to the seniors for the class with the most participation, while individual honors were given also. The following participants were awarded: Brian Jensen, Renee Reinsch, Ellen Messman, Vicki Kerwood, Loretta Young, Mrs. Bowman, Mrs. Schoenholz, Mrs. Busse and D.D. Messman.

The 1979 homecoming royalty were announced by Mrs. Reichert, while the sixth, seventh and eighth grade band along with the newly organized Bruning community band formed a crown formation and played a variety of songs for the occasion.

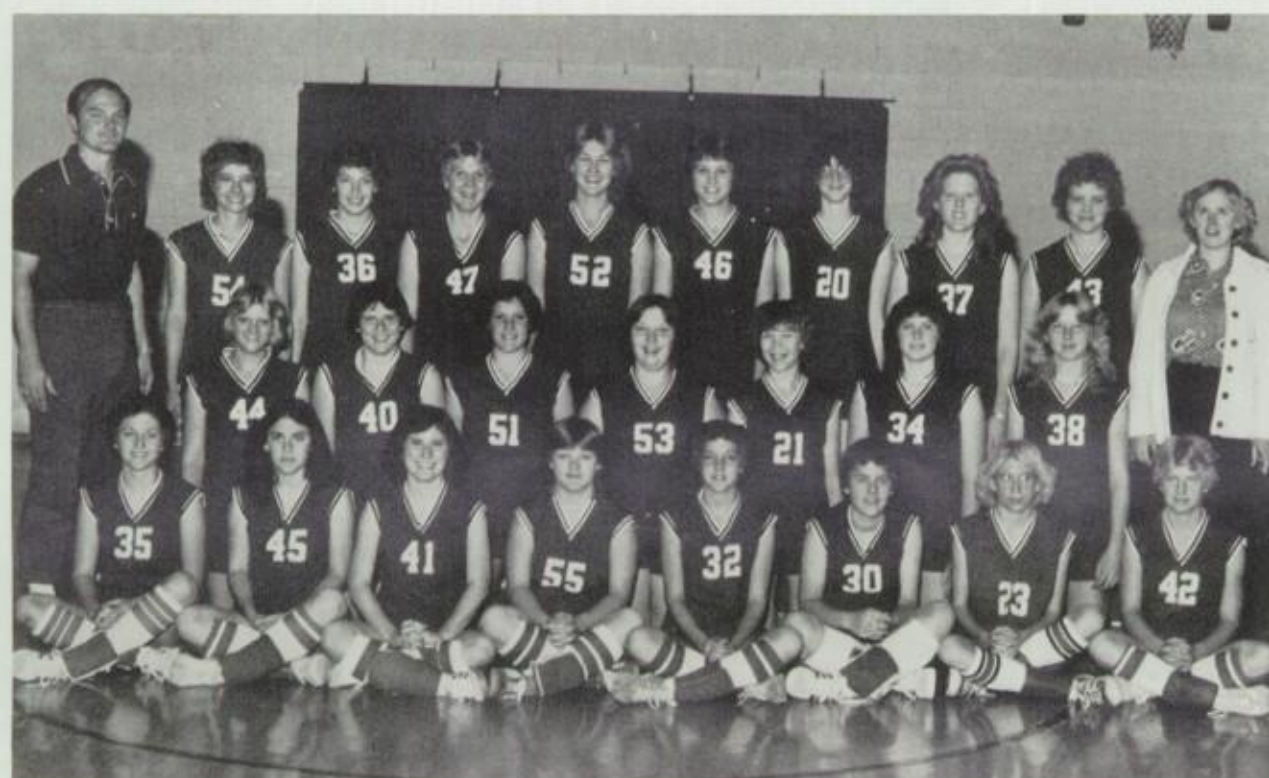

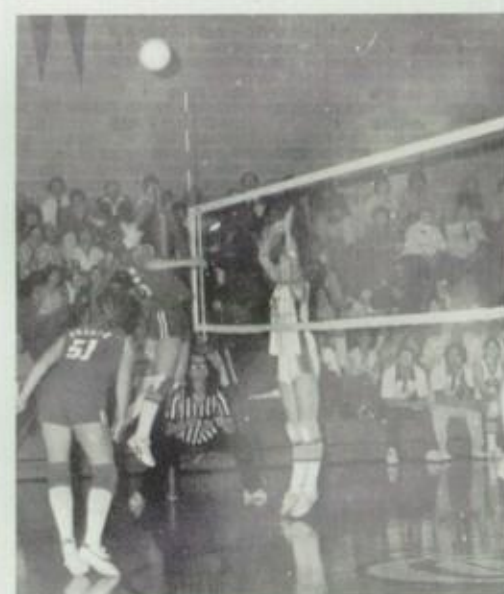

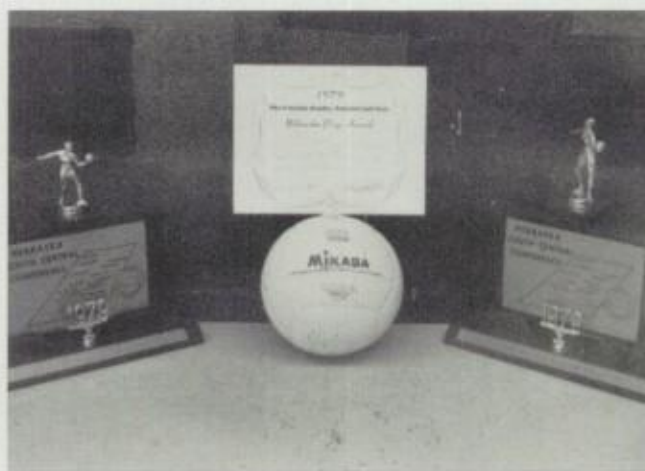

The attendants named were: freshman, Vicki Kerwood and Charles Nedza; sophomores, Judy Miller and Brian Hulse; juniors, Ellen Messman and Gary Young and the senior attendants were Julie Remmers and Mark Schoenholz. The 1979 king and queen announced were Tom Damrow and Rona Lichty.

Following the game the student body, faculty and alumni were invited to dance to the music provided by disc jockey Mike Rivers.

Bruning had a well-rounded basketball team this year. Coached by Mr. Freeouf, they ended the season with a winning record. Mr. Freeouf thought they had a good year and was thankful for no major injuries. With 3 returning varsity starters, Bruning can hope for another good season.

Shooting Towards The 80's

The 1979-80 girl's basketball season ended with a 7-7 record. The girls showed improvement in all aspects of the game, especially defense. The season can be best characterized by the tough competition the girls played against. Davenport, Shickley, and Deshler were all rated at one time during the season. The girls showed a great deal of poise and desire in meeting this challenge and should be commended for their strong play. # Girls Track 1980

The 1980 track season began with much hard work and rain which forced the team to work inside. Despite the slow start the team was ready to run, throw and jump. The girls participated at seven meets throughout the season. The nine members did their part at each meet to earn a track letter. Highlights of the season were the meets themselves as well as the van's ability to start, running in snow and waiting to pay for pizza.

The cheerleaders activities for the year were, starting right off in the summer with long, hot practices, attending a one-day camp at Grand Island, July 14. Many new cheers were learned and brought back to use for games. The cheerleaders also spent long hours making up new cheers, hello cheers and a routine, which was performed in the gym at halftime of the boys basketball game with Byron.

Kimmy Freeouf served her second year as mascot in which she has improved considerably.

A Busy Year

This year several of the Journalism and Yearbook students attended a Journalism Workshop in Lincoln at the Nebraska Center for Continuing Education. They picked up many new ideas which they incorporated into the annual. The students have been busy all year selecting pictures and meeting deadlines. Along with their annual work, the Journalism students put out the monthly Bear Facts, which received praise for its editorials at UNL.

Brigadoon

Normally the high school in Bruning is located on Carroll Street, but on March 28 and 29, the school is going to be on Broadway as they present the musical "Brigadoon." Directed by Mrs. A. Bowman. Students throughout the upper grades have been busily preparing the production which is centered around the mystical village Brigadoon in the Highlands of Scotland.

Tommy Albright (K. Walker) and his hunting buddy Jeff Douglas (G. Young) find themselves lost in Scotland far from their New York homes. As the men are about to give up because of fatigue, the once a century appearing village came into sight. The strained and strange voices of the villagers dressed in 18th century costumes have gathered to go to the marketplace to discuss the final wedding preparations of Jeammie MacLaren (V. Kerwood) and the boyish Charlie Dalrymple (T. Damrow). The village with its magical ways also brings romance into the lives of the hunters as Tommy finds Jeannie's sister Fiona (J. Remmers) and Jeff is twisted in a relationship with the maid, Meg Brockie (E. Messman).

But Brigadoon is not all romance and mystery as Harry Beaton (M. Elting), a rejected suitor of Jeannie's, tries to ruin the best laid wedding plans. Several other high school students are involved in the musical. The characters they will portray are Jane Ashton (C. Uden), Andrew MacLaren (C. Nedza), Anna Beaton (M. Young), Mrs. Lundie (L. Young), Agnus McGuffie (R. Lichty), Sandy Dean (C. Hinrichs), Frank (B. Hulse) and Maggie Anderson (B. Faulkner).

One-Acts

Four one-act plays were presented on May 12, 1980. One was put on by members of the Speech Class and directed by Mrs. Anne Bowman. This was entitled IT'S COLD IN THEM THAR HILLS, written by LeRoma Greth. The story centered around the hilarious events of a hillbilly shot-gun wedding.

The other three plays were put on by an all-school cast and were directed by Mrs. Bette Bedford. The first was titled THE NOBLE'S REWARD, written by Jerome McDonouch, and was about the poor and destitute Noble Family who discover virtue is its' own reward.

Second was DON'T GET SASSY, written by C. L. Helms, in which a cowardly sheriff gets more than he bargains for when he hires a wanted outlaw, the Sassafrass Kid, for his deputy.

The third was SADDLESORE RANCH AND OTHER PLACES, written by Bill Majeski. In this play Mother and Grandmother Bundy worry needlessly about sending Junior to Camp for the summer because a pretty girl takes care of Junior's vacation.
